

The speech action of commenting across discourse types 1/3

Stage - Room 20 - K3.601

Chaired by: Robert Külpmann and Rita Finkbeiner

8:30-9:00	The speech action of commenting: Approaches and challenges	Rita Finkbeiner & Robert Külpmann
9:00-9:30	Assertion, normativity, and commitment at the minimalism/contextualism boundary: The case of commenting	Kasia Jaszczolt
9:30-10:00	"People incorrectly correcting other people": (Re-)Correcting comments as a means of stancetaking in digital communication	Karina Frick & Dimitrios Meletis

*tea breakThe speech action of commenting across discourse types 2/3

Stage - Room 20 - K3.601

Chaired by: Robert Külpmann and Rita Finkbeiner

10:30-11:00	Commenting as an inherent function of because X constructions	Martin Konvička
11:00-11:30	Commentative wenn-sentences in German	Robert Külpmann
11:30-12:00	The translation of I think as a speech act: A corpus based study in English-Turkish translations of TED Talks	Aytaç Çeltek

*lunch breakThe speech action of commenting across discourse types 3/3

Stage - Room 20 - K3.601

Chaired by: Robert Külpmann and Rita Finkbeiner

13:45-14:15	Not Just a Laugh: Multi-Functions of Graphic Markers	Pnina Shukrun-Nagar & Galia Hirsch
14:15-14:45	"Momentos desagradables" – Linguistic triggers for speech action in social media	Mailyn Lübke
14:45-15:15	To whom does this message address? Sisterhood construction through commenting by Chinese women	Bin Wang

tea break